The Robert D. Reif Fellowship in Legal Ethics and Professional Values, Sponsored by Epstein Becker Green

MISSION

The mission of the Robert D. Reif Fellowship is to honor the memory of our longtime partner Robert "Bob" Reif by furthering his commitment in the practice of law to maintaining the highest level of ethical standards and professionalism in dealing with clients, fellow attorneys, and the community.

VISION

We believe, as did Bob, that there are core values in the legal profession that transcend the social and economic changes that take place over time and that such values provide a moral compass that guides a good lawyer to uphold justice, the rule of law, and service to the community, while faithfully representing clients. Our vision is to perpetuate and enhance such values by enabling law students to engage in further study and research into legal ethics and values, thereby enhancing the profession's and society's appreciation of their importance.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Epstein Becker Green has created a fellowship, in conjunction with a Washington, DC-based law professor who focuses on these issues, which will begin in the fall of 2013.
