

CORPORATE BREAKFAST:

Minimizing Legal and Compliance Risks: Strategies for Multinational Financial Services Firms Operating in the U.S.

DATE: Tuesday, May 25, 2010

TIME: 8 - 10 AM

As regulators in the U.S. and abroad tackle the issue of financial regulatory reform in the post-global economic crisis era, the ability of multinational financial services firms operating in the U.S. to stay within the bounds of shifting legal and compliance parameters is critical not only to their success but to their very survival. A distinguished panel of legal and compliance experts cover key employment issues such as wage and hour class actions, bonus and benefit matters and the use of social networking sites. Compliance experts will speak about corporate compliance issues from immigration and trade compliance to global labor, environmental, social and governance matters.
