

23rd Annual Health Law Writing Competition

First Place: $4,000 Second Place: $2,000 Third Place: $500

Epstein Becker Green is pleased to announce its 23rd Annual Epstein Becker Green Health Law Writing Competition. The competition is open to J.D. and L.L.M. candidates who are currently attending a U.S. law school or who attended a U.S. law school during the school year ending in May/June 2020.

Entrants should take advantage of the fact that health law is a very broad and diverse field, encompassing aspects of almost every area of law. Papers may address any traditional area of the law as applied to health care (e.g., antitrust, tax, corporate) or areas of law unique to health care (e.g., fraud and abuse, managed care, Medicare/Medicaid, clinical trials, telehealth/telemedicine). Entries ranked in the top 20 percent of all competition submissions may be considered for publication in the Annals of Health Law, which is published by the Loyola University Chicago School of Law.

Submissions due Friday, February 26, 2021:
