

WOMEN IN BIO

Innovative Entrepreneurs, Executives, and Scientists

Entrepreneur and Executive Forum
Potential Liability for the Life Science Entrepreneur

Tuesday, April 12, 2005

Women in Bio presents a panel discussion directed towards exposure to risk to provide insight and share expertise on this complex topic. Guest advisors will join the audience in discussing issues related to possible exposure to and possible protection from liability.

- ◆ Insurance considerations for early stage biotech companies.
- ◆ Conflict of interest.
- ◆ Document retention.
- ◆ Fraud & abuse – kickback.

Distinguished panelists include:

- ◆ Joe McManamey, McManamey & McManamey
- ◆ Rob Wanerman, Epstein, Becker & Green
- ◆ Leslie Wharton, Arnold & Porter
- ◆ Kate Mazan, Technology Transfer Group

Rockville Economic Development, Inc. (REDI)
95 Monroe Street
Rockville, Maryland 20850
301.315.8096
Fax 301.315.8097

For more information see: www.RockvilleREDI.org

6:00 p.m. – registration & light dinner, 6:30 - 8:30 pm program

Cost: $25 members, $40 non-members. Please register at www.womeninbio.org
Limited seating is available.

Registration deadline is April 10, 2005.

The Entrepreneur and Executive Roundtable Series is open only to Entrepreneurs and Executives of biotech and life sciences companies. For information call 703-819-7647.

Sponsored by:
Epstein, Becker, & Green P.C.

THOUGHT LEADERS IN HEALTH LAW®