DANIEL KIM is an Associate in the Health Care and Life Sciences practice, in the Washington, DC, office of Epstein Becker Green. He will be focusing his practice on FDA marketing approval of medical devices and pharmaceutical, reimbursement and compliance matters affecting health care medical device manufacturers, telehealth and telemedicine, HIPAA privacy and security, regulatory health care due diligence, and compliance issues.

Mr. Kim received his J.D., cum laude, from American University Washington College of Law. He obtained an M.A. in Anatomy and Neurobiology from Boston University School of Medicine, where he served as a surgical technician. He also received a B.A. in Biology, with a concentration in Neuroscience, from Boston University.

While attending law school, Mr. Kim clerked at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia and at the Medicare Operations Division of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Departmental Appeals Board. Later, he interned at the Commissioner's Office of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and at the Office of General Counsel for Doctor on Demand, Inc., where he assisted in researching state telehealth laws and regulations, and developing and implementing HIPAA privacy and security and company compliance policies.

Before going to law school, Mr. Kim worked for six years as a research assistant at Boston Children's Hospital, studying potential therapeutic treatments for spinal cord injuries.
