DAVID W. GARLAND is a Member of the Firm in the Employment, Labor & Workforce Management practice, in the New York and Newark offices of Epstein Becker Green. He is also Chair of the firm's National Employment, Labor & Workforce Management Steering Committee and a member of the firm's Board of Directors.

Mr. Garland is frequently retained in matters involving high-profile, high-stakes, and highly sensitive cases. These matters include:

- Sex harassment
- Employment discrimination
- Whistleblowing
- Retaliation
- Equal Pay
- Breach of contract
- Restrictive covenants

Mr. Garland has extensive trial experience, and clients often retain him when a case is likely to go to trial—or to send the message to the employee's counsel that the employer means business.

Because of his extensive trial experience, Mr. Garland is also called on by clients for his guidance in preparing for a publically litigated lawsuit—or to counsel the client on possible alternatives to prevent unwanted litigation.

As a member of Epstein Becker Green's Israel practice, Mr. Garland frequently represents U.S. subsidiaries of technology and other companies headquartered in Israel.

Mr. Garland has been a guest lecturer on employment law topics and career development for lawyers, at Columbia University Business School (MBA program), Gabelli School of Business at Fordham University, George Washington University Law School, and William & Mary Law School.
