DENISE MERNA DADIKA is a Member of the Firm in the Employment, Labor & Workforce Management practice at Epstein Becker Green. She serves on the practice's national Steering Committee and is Co-Chair of the firm's Health Employment and Labor (HEAL) strategic industry group. Ms. Dadika also acts as the Managing Member of the firm's Newark office, where her practice is based.

Ms. Dadika:

- Represents employers in state and federal courts and before administrative agencies on issues involving harassment, discrimination, retaliation, breach of employment contracts, wage and hour compliance, tort claims, and restrictive covenants
- Counsels employers on day-to-day workplace issues, including hiring and promotion, discipline and termination, leaves of absence, workplace accommodations, wage and hour compliance, internal investigations, and reductions in force
- Drafts employment policies and procedures, employee handbooks and manuals, and employment agreements
- Provides workplace training for employees, managers, and human resources personnel on various employee relations issues and laws
- Conducts internal investigations on behalf of management on such issues as sexual harassment and disparate treatment

Prior to joining Epstein Becker Green, Ms. Dadika was an associate in the Labor and Employment department of a New Jersey law firm. She began her legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Joseph L. Yannotti, Superior Court of New Jersey, Civil Part, Bergen Vicinage. While in law school, Ms. Dadika was the Managing Editor of the Journal of Human Rights. Her published works include Getting It Straight: The Supreme Court Expands Title VII to Protect Against All Forms of Same Sex Sexual Harassment, 15 N.Y.L.Sch.J.Hum.Rts 323 (1999).

In 2019 and 2020, Ms. Dadika was recommended by The Legal 500 United States in the area of Workplace and Employment Counseling. She has also been named to the New Jersey Rising Stars list (2006 to 2010, 2012, 2018, 2019) in the areas of Employment Litigation: Defense and Employment & Labor.
