Webinar

May 12, 2025 | 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. ET | Events

Jessica Giambrone Palmese, Senior Counsel, co-presents a webinar in the New York City Bar's ADR Forum Series, "Ask the Litigators: What Makes for Successful Mediation?"

Tune in for a discussion between attorneys with extensive experience representing clients in mediation, and mediators, to gain mediation counsels' perspective on the "do's and don'ts" of mediation: what approaches and techniques employed by mediators are best suited to enhance the chance of settlement, and what approaches hinder settlement; and what they believe makes for an effective mediator.
