

Recent Supreme Court Rulings on Access to Courts at the Enforcement of ERISA Rights and Responsibilities

The McDermott Building
October 24, 2014 | Events

John Houston Pope, Member of the Firm, will be a panelist on "Recent Supreme Court Rulings on Access to Courts" at the Enforcement of ERISA Rights and Responsibilities conference in Washington, DC.

Learn from architects of ERISA what Congress said in 1974 about the enforcement of participant rights and the responsibilities of plan fiduciaries. Examine Supreme Court rulings 40 years later. Hear how advocates on all sides view these and other court decisions. Discuss whether regulatory or legislative changes are needed. Explore areas of common ground.

For more information, visit pensionrights.org.

People

John Houston Pope
Member of the Firm
Employment Litigation
Tampa, St. Petersburg, New York
212-351-4641
jhpope@ebglaw.com