

Halting Harassment: Online Training

{{[embed=100053262]}}

Halting Harassment® provides compliant, compelling, interactive anti-harassment training for all of your employees and supervisors.

Created by the attorneys at Epstein Becker Green, this 50-state compliant e-learning solution helps employers in jurisdictions with mandatory training requirements, as well as those in locations without them, to encourage behaviors that foster a work environment free from discrimination and harassment—whether it’s in-person or virtual.

Halting Harassment® is compliant with federal and state laws across the U.S., including for specific requirements in California, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Maine, and New York, including New York City.

Visit Our Halting Harassment Resource Center

Sign Up for a Free, Interactive Demonstration of Our Anti-Harassment Training Tool

Halting Harassment

E-Learning Features Availability Comprehensive material addressing harassment and non-discrimination
(including relevant federal, state, and local laws) Inclusion of client’s anti-harassment policy and compliant procedure English-language closed captioning Animated video scenarios
Interactive questions, answers, and testing throughout the course State and local modules for the most efficient user experience Customer support Record of completion
Dependent on client’s Learning Management System Mobile learning – accessible on mobile devices
Dependent on client’s Learning Management System License duration 12 months – all employees

Contact us to learn how this training can protect your organization and to explore all your training options—use the form above or email: haltingharassment@ebglaw.com

Halting Harassment® is a registered trademark of Epstein Becker & Green, P.C.