

Favorable Mediation Settlement for Pharmaceutical Company

November 4, 2025

Epstein Becker Green attorneys secured a favorable settlement in mediation for a pharmaceutical client.

A former employee had sued the company, alleging wage discrimination and retaliation. The final settlement amount was less than 10 percent of the initial demand, ensuring the company could protect its bottom line and continue providing patient-oriented services and products.

Results may vary depending on your particular facts and legal circumstances.

People

Haley Morrison
Member of the Firm
Employment Litigation
Portland, Los Angeles, San Francisco
503-343-6489
hmorrison@ebglaw.com

Eric Werner
Associate
Health Care Litigation
Portland
503-343-6481
ewerner@ebglaw.com

Focus Areas

Services

Employment Litigation

Employment, Labor & Workforce
Management

Wage and Hour

Industries

Life Sciences Industry

Pharmaceuticals