World famous for its music industry, Nashville, Tennessee, also boasts a thriving health care sector. According to the Nashville Health Care Council, the health care industry is Nashville's largest and fastest-growing employer, annually contributing an overall benefit of over $67 billion to the local economy. With more than 500 health care companies, as well as a flourishing health information technology field, Nashville is attracting many large health care investors that are actively investing in the region.

Attorneys in our Nashville office anticipate developments in Washington, DC, including at the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services and other federal agencies. Combining our national resources with our local experience, we provide homegrown Nashville businesses, U.S. and international companies, and investors in the health care and information technology industries with innovative legal solutions, strategic business advice, and effective litigation services.
